

Tab 18

OFFICE OF THE INDEPENDENT COUNSEL

Date of transcription 07/28/98

MONICA S. LEWINSKY was interviewed in Apartment 33B, 300 East 56th Street, New York, New York. Representatives of the Office of Independent Counsel (OIC) included ROBERT J. BITTMAN, Deputy Independent Counsel (DIC), SOLOMON L. WISENBERG, DIC, MARY ANNE WIRTH, Associate Independent Counsel (AIC), and Professor SAM DASH, Consultant. Attorneys present for LEWINSKY included PLATO CACHERIS, Law Offices of PLATO CACHERIS, 1100 Connecticut Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20036, telephone 202-775-8700; SYDNEY HOFFMAN of the CACHERIS Law Office; and JACOB STEIN, Law Offices of STEIN, MITCHELL, & MEZINES, 1100 Connecticut Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20036, telephone 202-737-7777.

After each of the participants identified themselves, a proffer agreement was executed by LEWINSKY. The agreement had previously been signed on July 24, 1998 by STEIN, CACHERIS, and KENNETH W. STARR, Independent Counsel. A copy of the agreement is attached and marked "Attachment A". LEWINSKY stated that she wished to answer all questions truthfully and completely. LEWINSKY then provided the following information:

LEWINSKY is a 25 year old female with a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from Lewis & Clark College in Portland, Oregon. LEWINSKY has been taking two prescription anti-depressants since early February 1995. This medication, at times, causes some memory to be suppressed and this usually expresses itself as the inability to think of certain words during conversation. The drugs are Effexor and Serzone. LEWINSKY stated that she wished to proceed with the above caveat.

LEWINSKY first met the President of the United States, WILLIAM J. CLINTON, in July 1995, soon after beginning her job as an intern in LEON PANETTA's Office in the White House. The occasion was the departure of the President from the South Lawn of the White House. LEWINSKY had obtained her job through a friend of her mother's, WALTER KAYE, and through JAY FOOTLIK, who formerly worked there.

LEWINSKY began her personal relationship with the President on November 15, 1995. This was during the furlough of federal employees when LEWINSKY was in the unique position of having been hired as a paid employee in Legislative Affairs, but

Investigation on 07/27/98 at NEW YORK, NEW YORK File # 29D OIC LR 35063

by CI [REDACTED] Date dictated 07/28/98

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY . On 07/27/98 , Page 2

before her paper work had been processed. LEWINSKY, who was still an intern working for LEON PANETTA in the West Wing of the White House, saw the President when he came to the West Wing to see PANETTA and HAROLD ICKES. LEWINSKY and the President had flirted previously and they made eye contact on this visit. Later that day there was a cake party for JENNIFER PALMIERI, which the President and LEWINSKY attended. Later the same day, LEWINSKY was walking past the office of GEORGE STEPHANOPOLOUS and noticed that the President was inside the office and a U.S. Secret Service (USSS) Agent was outside. The President motioned for LEWINSKY to come in. LEWINSKY felt that this was her big chance and she advised the President that she "had a crush on him." The President then invited LEWINSKY to the back study behind the Oval Office, where he kissed her.

The relationship then blossomed and eventually included 14 sexual encounters. Sexual encounters included one or more of the following: kissing, hugging, touching, and oral sex on the person of the President, but not intercourse. On one occasion there was unclothed genital contact. Although LEWINSKY and the President had talked about the President performing oral sex on LEWINSKY, this never occurred because many times their encounters occurred during her menstrual cycles. The relationship included about 50 telephone calls, with the majority of them being between 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. About 15 of these calls were sexually explicit telephone calls, which LEWINSKY refers to as "phone sex" with the President. The President made most of the calls from his residence, but called LEWINSKY from out of town several times, including a call from Florida at the beginning of September 1996, when he was on the campaign trail.

At least seven of the sexual acts occurred in the hallway between the Oval Office and the private study of the President. The President usually left the door between the Oval Office and the Back Office slightly ajar so there would be no suspicion of improper activity and to hear if anyone was trying to contact him. LEWINSKY explained that the Back Office includes the private study, the hallway, the dining room, and the bathroom. The President liked to stand with his back against the door frame to ease his back muscles. When the President wanted to spend time with LEWINSKY, he would call her and either arrange to meet her in the hall, or LEWINSKY would carry some papers into the Oval Office. There were about nine or ten sexual contacts prior to Easter 1996, and about four after LEWINSKY was transferred to the Pentagon. About four of the sexual events occurred on workdays between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., with the remainder on weekends. LEWINSKY recounted a few of the sexual contacts as follows:

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY, On 07/27/98, Page 3

- A. On February 27 or 28 when the President gave LEWINSKY a hatpin and a book. This included kissing, touching, and oral sex to completion.
- B. On March 29 or 30 after the knee surgery. This consisted of kissing, touching, oral sex to completion and brief genital contact without clothing but not intercourse.
- C. On August 16, 1997, a birthday kiss.
- D. On December 28, 1997, a Christmas kiss.

BETTY CURRIE, the President's Secretary, may have seen the President and LEWINSKY hugging on occasion and possibly a kiss on the forehead. During a visit to the private study on July 4th, LEWINSKY was at times crying and fighting with the President, and hugging him, when she saw a gardener, name unknown, who was working outside a window of the back study. The President and LEWINSKY then moved out of sight into the hallway where intimate things sometimes occurred during their relationship. LEWINSKY is unsure whether the gardener observed any arguing or hugging between the President and LEWINSKY. LEWINSKY is unaware of anyone else who could have observed any sexual activity. The President was suspicious of the USSS uniformed people and of LINDA TRIPP. In April 1997, the President asked, during a telephone call to LEWINSKY, whether LEWINSKY had told her mother about their sexual relationship. This was after MARSHA SCOTT had a conversation with WALTER KAYE. LEWINSKY denied that she had. However, this was untrue, inasmuch as LEWINSKY had told her mother of the emotional details of her involvement with the President, and told her that LEWINSKY and the President had "fooled around". On Monday, July 14, 1997, the President asked LEWINSKY if LEWINSKY had told LINDA TRIPP about their relationship. LEWINSKY replied "no." On December 28, 1997, the President asked LEWINSKY if she had revealed the hat pin to anyone and LEWINSKY denied that she had. The President did not believe LEWINSKY.

BAYANI NELVIS knew that LEWINSKY had been alone with the President on December 31, 1995, between 12:00 p.m. and 1:00 p.m., because LEWINSKY had a conversation with NELVIS in the pantry/kitchen area. LEWINSKY and NELVIS were discussing the smoking of cigars. NELVIS offered to get LEWINSKY one of the President's cigars and they entered the pantry door so that

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY . On 07/27/98 , Page 4

NELVIS could get one. At that point, the President came in from the Oval Office to get something for PANETTA and saw LEWINSKY. NELVIS then obtained the item for PANETTA and left LEWINSKY and the President alone in the back rooms. This resulted in LEWINSKY performing oral sex with the President.

NELVIS advised LEWINSKY on one other occasion that a uniformed officer had asked NELVIS the identity of LEWINSKY, after the officer had observed her go into the Oval Office. NELVIS told the officer that LEWINSKY was the daughter of one of the Cabinet Secretaries.

BETTY CURRIE facilitated LEWINSKY's visits with the President so that EVELYN LIEBERMAN, STEPHEN GOODIN, and NANCY HERNREICH, who did not like LEWINSKY, would not find out. CURRIE advised that HERNREICH would be gone on Monday or Tuesday evenings to attend yoga classes and that LIEBERMAN and GOODIN were gone on weekends.

On Good Friday of 1996, LEWINSKY was advised that she was being transferred out of the White House to the Pentagon.

The President called LEWINSKY on Easter Sunday 1996, about 5:00 p.m. or 6:00 p.m., and asked about the RON BROWN incident. LEWINSKY cried about being transferred out and the President asked her to visit him. LEWINSKY carried some papers to the Oval Office and Officer JOHN MUSKETT was there. MUSKETT said he would ask LIEBERMAN if LEWINSKY could see the President, but LEWINSKY skirted the issue by saying that she would only be there for a minute to drop off the papers. The President was sitting at his desk in the Oval Office talking on the telephone, presumably to Mrs. CLINTON, as the President ended the call by saying, "I love you." The President and LEWINSKY went into the back office and the President tried to soothe LEWINSKY by saying, "I promise you if I win in November I'll get you back and you can do what you want." The President said that LIEBERMAN had spearheaded LEWINSKY's transfer because LEWINSKY was paying too much attention to the President and they could not have this prior to the election. LEWINSKY soon began performing oral sex on the President, then the President took a telephone call from a political person, whom LEWINSKY later speculated to be DICK MORRIS. The telephone may have rung in the back office, or the President may have been interrupted by someone from the Oval Office to take the call. LEWINSKY felt cheap performing oral sex while the President was on the telephone. At some later date, after reading about DICK MORRIS in the newspaper, LEWINSKY wondered whether DICK MORRIS was doing the same thing with a prostitute. The President completed the call and hung up. The oral sex was discontinued when the President answered, "Just a minute" as a result of HAROLD ICKES calling out, "Mr. President" from the door of the Oval Office. LEWINSKY had her top off. The President left the room and LEWINSKY departed through the back door after putting her top back on.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY, On 07/27/98, Page 5

After the President won the election, LEWINSKY renewed her efforts to get back to the White House. The President advised LEWINSKY that he would talk to BOB NASH and told her at other times that both MARSHA SCOTT and NASH were working on it. LEWINSKY had given her resume to the President in March 1997. LEWINSKY applied for a job in the White House Press Office and LINDA TRIPP arranged an NSC (National Security Council) interview. LEWINSKY advised MARSHA SCOTT of her applications, but she did not get either job. When LEWINSKY told the President that she had applied for these jobs, the President retorted that he needed to know in advance so that he could do something.

By October 1997, LEWINSKY told the President that she had made up her mind to leave the Pentagon job and move to New York. LEWINSKY mentioned a job at the United Nations (UN). The President said that he would help, and he apparently spoke to JOHN PODESTA, who spoke to BILL RICHARDSON on a trip to Mexico. Ambassador RICHARDSON called LEWINSKY and set up an interview at the Watergate Hotel. Subsequently, RICHARDSON called LEWINSKY at the Pentagon and offered her the job at the UN. LEWINSKY, who had changed her mind about working at the UN, but did not know how to back out, called one of RICHARDSON's assistants and advised that she was more interested in working in the private sector.

LINDA TRIPP suggested to LEWINSKY that the President should be asked to ask VERNON JORDAN for assistance. In early October 1997, while talking to the President on the telephone from 2:30 a.m. to 4:00 a.m., LEWINSKY asked the President to call JORDAN and the President did. This long conversation included an argument about why the President was not bringing LEWINSKY back to the White House.

LEWINSKY was a willing participant in all of the sexual encounters. LEWINSKY and the President had discussed a number of times that they would never tell anyone about their sexual activities. However, in violation of this agreement, LEWINSKY did provide different levels of detail about the sexual relationship to the following persons: ANDY BLEILER, NATALIE UNGVARI, NEYSA ERBLAND, ASHLEY RAINES, CATHRYN ALDAY DAVIS, LINDA

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY, On 07/27/98, Page 6

TRIPP, DALE YOUNG, Dr. CATHY ESTEP, and Dr. IRENE KASSORLA. LEWINSKY did not tell KATHY BLEILER, and did not tell DENNIS LYTTON of Los Angeles, who is unknown to her.

No sexual incidents occurred from May 1996 or earlier until after the election.

In May 1997, the President said that he did not feel right about his sexual relationship with LEWINSKY and that he just wanted to be friends. LEWINSKY referred to this as "dump day."

The President, at one time or another, made comments to LEWINSKY such as, "You are bright, attractive, and make me feel young;" he liked talking to her; "people like us" (meaning, we are the same), LEWINSKY was "emotive and full of fire"; LEWINSKY was "full of piss and vinegar;" he wished to spend more time with LEWINSKY; he might "have time in three years;" and "What if I'm 75 and have to go to the bathroom fifteen times a day?". The President sometimes called LEWINSKY "sweetie" or "baby." LEWINSKY occasionally called the President "handsome."

On December 17, 1997, during a telephone conversation between 2:00 a.m. and 3:00 a.m., the President advised LEWINSKY that she was on the PAULA JONES witness list. This was the first indication LEWINSKY had that she was to be subpoenaed. LEWINSKY believes that the President had just found out, but if the President found out about the potential witnesses on December 5th or 6th he never gave any indication of this to LEWINSKY. During this call the President advised that LEWINSKY might sign an affidavit to avoid being deposed in the JONES case; that LEWINSKY could say that she was coming to the White House to visit BETTY CURRIE; or that LEWINSKY was carrying papers to the President; and that LEWINSKY should contact BETTY CURRIE if subpoenaed. The President also advised that BETTY CURRIE's brother had been killed, and that the President had a Christmas present for LEWINSKY.

On December 19, 1997, LEWINSKY was served with a subpoena in the PAULA JONES lawsuit, between 4:00 p.m. and 4:30 p.m., at the Pentagon where LEWINSKY was then working. This was very upsetting to LEWINSKY, who then called VERNON JORDAN from a payphone in the Pentagon. JORDAN had been helping LEWINSKY seek employment in New York for the previous month and a half. LEWINSKY went to see JORDAN at his office that afternoon, showed JORDAN the subpoena, and pointed out that it included the production of a hat pin that the President had given LEWINSKY.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY . On 07/27/98 , Page 7

LEWINSKY asked JORDAN about getting an attorney. JORDAN received a telephone call and asked LEWINSKY to leave the room. After about ten minutes JORDAN came back, but did not identify the caller. JORDAN called an attorney named FRANK CARTER and set up an appointment for LEWINSKY at 10:30 a.m. on the following Monday. JORDAN said there were only two important questions: 1. Did you have sex with the President? 2. Did the President ask you for sex? JORDAN said that he would see the President that evening and would tell him about LEWINSKY's subpoena. In a subsequent meeting, JORDAN assured LEWINSKY that he had advised the President of the subpoena.

LEWINSKY did not visit the President at the White House between December 6th and December 28th, 1997.

On December 28, 1997, LEWINSKY visited the President at the White House. The visit was arranged by BETTY CURRIE. When LEWINSKY arrived she talked to BETTY and played with BUDDY on the carpet with some "people bones" for about ten minutes while the President was on the telephone. The President and LEWINSKY then went into the back study and spent from 45 minutes to an hour together. The President gave LEWINSKY her Christmas gifts at this time. There was no sex on this occasion, but there may have been a kiss and a hug, as the President said that Christmas kisses were an exception to his earlier statement that there would be no more sexual contact between them. LEWINSKY expressed her concern about the gifts that the President had given LEWINSKY and specifically the hat pin that had been subpoenaed by PAULA JONES. The President seemed to know what the JONES subpoena called for in advance and did not seem surprised about the hat pin. The President asked LEWINSKY if she had told anyone about the hat pin and LEWINSKY denied that she had, but may have said that she gave some of the gifts to FRANK CARTER. LEWINSKY was concerned because this was a personal item. LEWINSKY mentioned that DEBBIE SCHIFF may have given her name to the lawyers for PAULA JONES. The President opined that it may have been "that woman from the summer that was involved in the KATHLEEN WILLEY thing." LEWINSKY asked the President if she should give the gifts to someone and the President replied, "I don't know." LEWINSKY and the President discussed her move to New York and the President said that if LEWINSKY was in New York the JONES lawyers might not call; that the sooner LEWINSKY moved the better; and that maybe the lawyers would ignore her. Sometime prior to December 28th the President had suggested that LEWINSKY submit an affidavit in lieu of testifying.

Several hours after leaving the White House LEWINSKY

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY, On 07/27/98, Page 8

received a telephone call at her apartment from BETTY CURRIE who made the statement, "You have some things to give me?" This call was not a coincidence, but a result of LEWINSKY's earlier conversation with the President. The call may have been on CURRIE's cell phone. LEWINSKY put a GAP box on her bed and placed in it a number of gifts that she had received from the President, except for some innocuous items that would not appear too personal if found in her apartment. The reason for getting some of the gifts out of the apartment was because LEWINSKY suspected that the lawyers for JONES would break into her apartment. LEWINSKY also suspected that the JONES people might tap her telephone. Besides keeping the innocuous gift items, LEWINSKY also kept some of the sentimental items from the President such as the following: a canvas bag from the BLACK DOG store, maybe some BLACK DOG T-shirts, a lithographic book, a big Rockette blanket, a pair of sunglasses, and a wooden box that had contained an earlier present. LEWINSKY kept the sentimental items because she was afraid that she would not get them back. Pursuant to the agreement that LEWINSKY and CURRIE had made during the earlier telephone call, LEWINSKY met CURRIE on 28th street outside LEWINSKY's apartment at about 2:00 p.m. and gave CURRIE the box of gifts. The box contained a hat pin, some BLACK DOG items, a broach, two signed photographs of The President, and a signed State of the Union address. However, there was no discussion of the contents. LEWINSKY had written "do not throw away" on the box. CURRIE was on her way to visit a relative in the hospital when she stopped by. CURRIE was to keep the box in a closet in CURRIE's home.

In addition to the December 19, 1997 meeting with VERNON JORDAN, LEWINSKY had met JORDAN on several previous occasions. LEWINSKY may have met with JORDAN in late November or the first week in December 1997. LEWINSKY initially met JORDAN in early November 1997, when she spent about 20 minutes in his office. The purpose of this meeting was to ask JORDAN's assistance in obtaining a job in New York. LEWINSKY knew that JORDAN and the President were good friends and JORDAN knew that LEWINSKY and the President were friends. JORDAN indicated that he had spoken with the President and LEWINSKY interpreted this to mean that the President had asked JORDAN for assistance in getting LEWINSKY a job. JORDAN said, "You've come highly recommended." LEWINSKY understood that this meant that the President had spoken to JORDAN. LEWINSKY was somewhat intimidated during this meeting. JORDAN said that he would make some telephone calls on LEWINSKY's behalf before he left Washington for the holidays.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY, On 07/27/98, Page 9

On December 11, 1997, LEWINSKY had lunch with JORDAN at the AKIN, GUMP office, at which time JORDAN recommended that LEWINSKY write letters with certain language to three companies. JORDAN provided the language. LEWINSKY typed the letters and sent copies to JORDAN. During the meeting JORDAN indicated that he knew LEWINSKY's mother's fiance, PETER STRAUS.

At one of the December meetings, JORDAN said to LEWINSKY that LEWINSKY was a friend of the President but, "Your problem is that you're in love--don't deny it." LEWINSKY just laughed in reply. At another of the December meetings with JORDAN, they had breakfast at the HYATT first.

On December 22, 1997, LEWINSKY met with JORDAN for about 15 minutes in his office. LEWINSKY showed JORDAN the gifts that she was taking to CARTER's office. LEWINSKY believes that JORDAN knew that she was not turning over all of the gifts to CARTER. JORDAN did not tell LEWINSKY to hold back any of the items. LEWINSKY told JORDAN that she had phone sex with the President and JORDAN replied that it was alright if the President talked to people. JORDAN asked what phone sex was, but LEWINSKY did not explain. JORDAN grunted and nodded a lot during his meetings with LEWINSKY and this sometimes made it difficult to fully understand him. LEWINSKY and JORDAN had a wink and nod understanding that LEWINSKY was having sex with the President. LEWINSKY does not recall whether JORDAN explained the difference between civil and criminal perjury.

On December 22, 1997 LEWINSKY was driven to FRANK CARTER's office by VERNON JORDAN, where she discussed the JONES subpoena with CARTER. The President had previously suggested an affidavit to avoid testifying and LEWINSKY talked to CARTER about it. The President assumed that the affidavit would be to deny something, although she did not discuss specifics with the President. The pattern was to conceal and deny and there was no reason for the President to think that anything had changed. LEWINSKY had always told the President that she would protect him.

At some point in January 1996, CARTER paged LEWINSKY and advised her that the JONES lawyers had subpoenaed the courier records for the gifts that LEWINSKY sent to the White House. LEWINSKY called for the President but he was out of town. LEWINSKY suggested to BETTY CURRIE that the gifts were for CURRIE and in some cases this would be true. The same night, LEWINSKY asked LINDA TRIPP if ISIKOFF had called her, since ISIKOFF had called LEWINSKY earlier. There had been no earlier contacts by

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY, On 07/27/98, Page 10

ISIKOFF with BETTY CURRIE.

On January 7, 1998, LEWINSKY signed the JONES affidavit which CARTER had prepared. LEWINSKY took the following gifts to CARTER's office: "The Hope and History" book, all Christmas cards, two signed photos, including the LEWINSKY family photo, and signed letters. There was no agreement with the President, JORDAN, or anyone else that LEWINSKY had to sign the JONES affidavit before getting a job in New York. LEWINSKY never demanded a job from JORDAN in return for a favorable affidavit. Neither the President nor JORDAN ever told LEWINSKY that she had to lie. However, LEWINSKY repeated that there had always been an understanding with the President that they would both deny a sexual relationship.

In January 1998, LEWINSKY met with JORDAN, shortly after she signed the JONES affidavit on January 7, 1998. LEWINSKY gave JORDAN a tie and pocket square, and thanked him for his assistance in getting her a job in New York. JORDAN had helped LEWINSKY get the interviews in New York with MCANDREWS AND FORBES, BURSTON MARSTELLER, and REVLON. JORDAN began helping LEWINSKY after she requested his assistance in a meeting at JORDAN's office in early November 1997. JORDAN helped LEWINSKY because LEWINSKY was a friend of the President. JORDAN was the only one in recent times who had delivered what he promised.

When LEWINSKY was subpoenaed on December 19, 1997, she telephonically discussed it in a cryptic manner with LINDA TRIPP, who had already been subpoenaed. LEWINSKY was concerned that TRIPP would testify about LEWINSKY's sexual relationship with the President, inasmuch as LEWINSKY had advised TRIPP of many details in confidence on different occasions. During previous discussions, TRIPP advised LEWINSKY that she would reveal what LEWINSKY had told her if TRIPP had to testify. LEWINSKY and TRIPP had talked about TRIPP's testimony several times.

At some point LEWINSKY typed on her home computer the talking points about how TRIPP should testify. The contents and ideas for the talking points were a summary of things that LEWINSKY and TRIPP had discussed off and on since March 1997. There was no lawyer involved in preparing the talking points, nor did LEWINSKY receive any instructions from the President, JORDAN, CARTER, or anyone from the White House. LEWINSKY gave the talking points to TRIPP at the Pentagon. TRIPP read the points and made positive statements about them by saying, "That's true," and "This is good." TRIPP had indicated that TRIPP wanted to file an affidavit to avoid testifying in the JONES matter.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY . On 07/27/98 , Page 11

LEWINSKY did not always tell TRIPP the truth, i.e. LEWINSKY promised that she would not sign the JONES affidavit until she had the New York job lined up. However, when this promise was made to TRIPP the affidavit had already been signed.

LEWINSKY was not aware that TRIPP was taping her telephone calls, but did suspect that TRIPP may have been recording her during their conversation at the RITZ CARLTON HOTEL on January 13, 1998.

LEWINSKY gave a copy of the affidavit to JORDAN. JORDAN made changes to the first draft of the affidavit, but did not retain a copy. These were minor changes proposed by LEWINSKY and agreed to by JORDAN. CARTER prepared three or four drafts of the affidavit until LEWINSKY and CARTER agreed upon one. Minor changes were made. JORDAN never told LEWINSKY to file the affidavit but did discuss her concerns when LEWINSKY called him.

LEWINSKY prepared a written proffer in her own handwriting at the end of January, 1998. Attached is a copy of the proffer marked "Attachment B". The writing took from six to ten hours and was completed in one sitting. LEWINSKY asked her attorneys, BILL GINSBERG and NATE SPEIGHTS, a few questions. The attorneys were in the hallway outside of the conference room at the COSMOS CLUB when she drafted the proffer. LEWINSKY was not on medication. The proffer is generally accurate and LEWINSKY would disavow nothing in it. NATE SPEIGHTS has a copy of the first draft, which is not significantly different from the second draft. LEWINSKY made the following comments concerning specific statements in the proffer:

- A. At the end of paragraph two on page two of the proffer LEWINSKY's recollection is that the words "leave Washington, DC" should read "get out of town."
- B. In paragraph marked four on page four the following statement appears "In general, Ms. L should say she visited the WH to see Ms. CURRIE and, on occasion when working at the WH, she brought him letters when no one else was around." LEWINSKY commented that these statements were not untrue, but were misleading in that some facts were omitted from this statement. This was the cover story that the President had suggested that she use.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY, On 07/27/98, Page 12

- C. At the bottom of page five the wording of the two lines scratched out is "on more than one occasion Ms. L was concerned about signing an affidavit." LEWINSKY's memory is unclear on this point, but LEWINSKY may or may not have said this to JORDAN.
- D. In regard to the bottom paragraph on page five, LEWINSKY said that she cannot now remember whether she told JORDAN about her sexual relationship with the President.
- E. In regard to the first sentence on page six, "Ms. L made it clear she intended to deny the sexual relationship with the Pres.", LEWINSKY now is not sure of that statement.
- F. In paragraph two of page eight the proffer states "Ms. L replied that she and the Pres. had already had an affair minus having sex,--but it included everything else." LEWINSKY said that this statement meant that she never had intercourse with The President.
- G. In regard to paragraph ten on page ten, LEWINSKY discussed signing the affidavit denying a sexual relationship with the President. LEWINSKY said that she had never even thought about giving an affidavit wherein she would admit to having sex with the President. Based on the pattern of LEWINSKY's relationship with the President it was assumed that LEWINSKY would not admit any sexual activity. Neither the President nor anyone ever directed LEWINSKY to say anything or to lie, but neither did the President nor anyone else ever tell LEWINSKY not to lie. No one ever used the term "deny, deny" to her.

LEWINSKY now has some guilt about getting JORDAN into trouble. LEWINSKY likes JORDAN. LEWINSKY said that her memory when she wrote the proffer in January would have been better than it is today.

LEWINSKY gave the following gifts to the President:

1. A poem written by LEWINSKY on behalf of the White House interns and presented to the President by KARIN ABRAMSON.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY, On 07/27/98, Page 13

2. In November, 1995 a tie delivered to the President by BETTY CURRIE and worn in the Oval Office the day that MADELINE ALBRIGHT was appointed Secretary of State.
3. End of March, 1996 on the day RON BROWN was killed, a tie from BLOOMINGDALE'S.
4. August, 1996 a tie worn by the President in September, 1996 while signing the Defense Bill. LEWINSKY has a signed photo.
5. Fall, 1997 a CALVIN KLEIN tie worn on California trip.
6. March, 1997 a tie worn to a Governor's race rally in Virginia.
7. December 6, 1997 a tie from London.
8. Antique book on PETER THE GREAT from 1802.
9. LEWINSKY's personal copy of "Vox" (no inscription). LEWINSKY replaced her copy of the book at KRAMER BOOKS. Observed in back study of the President on November 13, 1997.
10. A copy of "The Note Book" by NICHOLAS SPARKS.
11. A copy of "Oy Vey," a book of Jewish jokes. Observed in back study of the President on November 13, 1997.
12. A book on golf.
13. An old school book entitled "Disease and Misrepresentation" which was about race relations.
14. A BANANA REPUBLIC casual shirt.
15. A wooden letter opener with a frog on the handle. Observed in back study of the President.
16. A plastic pocket frog.
17. A puzzle on golf mysteries.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY . On 07/27/98 , Page 14

18. A card game.
19. A copy of "SHERLOCK HOLMES".
20. An antique standing cigar holder on December 28, 1997.
21. A tie on December 28, 1997.
22. A HARROD's mug on December 28, 1997.
23. A hugs and kisses box on December 28, 1997.
24. A penny medallion with a heart cut out.
25. An antique paperweight with a painting of the White House on November 13th, the day HERNREICH testified. Purchased at flea market at 6th and 7th. President ZEDILLO of Mexico at White House. In political collection in cabinet in back dining room.
26. A STARBUCKS mug from Santa Monica. NELVIS observed the President using the mug.
27. A book about THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
28. A pair of sunglasses in Fall, worn by the President in Africa, photo in U.S. News in January, 1998.
29. A pumpkin pin that the President wore in his lapel on Halloween.
30. A care package in March, 1996 when the President injured his leg.

LEWINSKY received the following gifts from the President, some of which have been previously mentioned:

1. A lithograph on February 27 or 28, 1997 (placed in her purse unwrapped)
2. A hatpin on February 27 or 28, 1997 (placed in purse unwrapped).
3. A large BLACK DOG canvas bag from Martha's

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY . On 07/27/98 . Page 15

Vineyard.

4. A large Rockettes blanket from New York.
5. An ugly but sweet pin of the New York skyline.
6. A small box of cherry chocolates.
7. A pair of joke sunglasses.
8. A stuffed animal from BLACK DOG.
9. A marble bear's head from Vancouver.
10. A London pin wrapped in a Casual Corner box.
11. A Shamrock pin.
12. A compact disk of ANNIE LENNOX.
13. Some "Davidoff" cigars.

On December 6, 1997, LEWINSKY spent about 20 or 25 minutes with the President and had gotten into a big fight with him. LEWINSKY had found out that ELEANOR MONDALE was in with the President while she waited at the northwest gate. LEWINSKY had earlier sent a note to the President that she needed to talk with him. Part of LEWINSKY's anger was caused by BETTY CURRIE, who had told LEWINSKY that the President was meeting with lawyers. LEWINSKY left the northwest gate in a very agitated state and called CURRIE from the Corcoran Gallery. LEWINSKY was very "pissed off" and called CURRIE again from her apartment. CURRIE may have paged her before this call. LEWINSKY called the White House again and talked to the President about MONDALE. During the White House argument LEWINSKY went ballistic and the President said that he never had anyone talk to him like LEWINSKY. LEWINSKY also told the President that things were not moving fast enough with VERNON JORDAN. This meant that she had not found a job in New York yet.

LEWINSKY's affidavit in the JONES case was not accurate in the following respects:

- A. That LEWINSKY never had a sexual relationship with the President.
- B. That LEWINSKY never was alone with the President

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA LEWINSKY, On 07/27/98, Page 16

after she left the White House.

- C. That LEWINSKY only saw the President at public functions.

LEWINSKY said that she had heard rumors from The Hill that CHRIS WALKER may have set her up with TIM KEATING. The word was that she was too sexy to work in the White House. JODIE TORKELSON had wanted to fire LEWINSKY. MARSHA SCOTT said that LEWINSKY was called "the Stalker" at the White House.

In regard to the deposition of the President in the JONES case, LEWINSKY said that she had always assumed that the President would deny any sexual relationships, but the President never said it to LEWINSKY. LEWINSKY asked the President if the ten other women on the witness list were from the White House and the President said that they were all women from the old days in Arkansas.