

Tab 20

OFFICE OF THE INDEPENDENT COUNSEL

Date of transcription 08/02/98

MONICA S. LEWINSKY was interviewed pursuant to an immunity agreement between the Office of the Independent Counsel (OIC), LEWINSKY, and her attorneys. Present for the interview were Associate Independent Counsel (AIC) MICHAEL EMMICK, AIC KARIN IMMERGUT, AIC MARY ANNE WIRTH, and AIC JULIE MYERS. Representing LEWINSKY were attorneys SYDNEY HOFFMAN and PRESTON BURTON of the law offices of PLATO CACHERIS. AIC WIRTH was not present for the late morning and early afternoon portions of the interview. The interview was conducted in Room 616 of the WATERGATE HOTEL, commencing at 9:40 a.m. and ending at 6:15 p.m. LEWINSKY, a white female, born July 23, 1973, provided the following information:

After the scandal broke and the "talking points" were discussed in the media, LEWINSKY realized that the quotes made by LINDA TRIPP in the Newsweek article on August 11, 1997, and in the article in the Washington Times on August 14, 1997, included concepts that LEWINSKY and TRIPP had discussed. These concepts helped influence the contents of the talking points, which were written by LEWINSKY. LEWINSKY recognized that the above mentioned public statements by LINDA TRIPP closely resembled the talking points. These ideas of TRIPP, that were publicly espoused, pointed to the likelihood that KATHLEEN WILLEY's story was more untrue than factual. TRIPP made varying statements in these articles.

During the meeting between LEWINSKY and the President on December 28, 1997, the President said something to the effect of, "That woman from the summer got you into this." By this, LEWINSKY understood that the President meant LINDA TRIPP, who had been quoted in the above articles. On this occasion, a member of the U.S. Secret Service (USSS) could have observed the President hugging LEWINSKY through the glass, but LEWINSKY is not sure.

LEWINSKY has not heard any of the tapes that TRIPP made of their conversations.

LEWINSKY provided a copy of a two-sided set of calendars for the years 1993, 1994 and 1995 entitled, "1994 Diary, FiloFax." Certain dates are circled on each calendar. On the 1995 portion of the calendar, LEWINSKY circled the dates

Investigation on 07/30/98 at WASHINGTON, D.C. File # 29D OIC LR 35063

by SA [REDACTED]
 CI [REDACTED] Date dictated 08/02/98

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY, On 07/30/98, Page 2

relating to encounters with ANDY BLEILER.

LEWINSKY said that in March 1998, the [REDACTED] matter had arisen, and since she was very sensitive about it, LEWINSKY did not wish to discuss [REDACTED] at this time.

LEWINSKY had created a matrix by spreadsheet in the Fall of 1997 on the Excel program of her computer at the Pentagon, at the request of LINDA TRIPP. This was created on her work computer when her boss, KEN BACON, was out of town. The matrix consisted of the dates of events, telephone calls, and personal meetings with the President. No names or identifying data were typed on the matrix. LEWINSKY made one, or possibly two copies, but did not save the matrix on her computer. LEWINSKY showed or read one copy to TRIPP and believes that she destroyed any other copy. LEWINSKY had first begun confiding in TRIPP in November 1996, at which time TRIPP urged LEWINSKY to go back to the White House to work. TRIPP advised LEWINSKY that she was the kind of woman the President would like and an affair with the President would be a neat thing to tell her grandkids. TRIPP kept hounding LEWINSKY until LEWINSKY finally said, "Look, I've already had an affair with him and it's over."

The President called LEWINSKY between 12:00 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. on January 7, 1996, which was during the snowstorm. He asked LEWINSKY to go to her office in the White House, where he again called her. While chatting, LEWINSKY asked if the President wanted some company, and the President replied that he did. Plans were made that LEWINSKY would go to the Oval Office and the door would be left open.

Upon arriving between 3:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m., LEWINSKY, who was carrying some papers, saw uniformed USSS Officer LEWIS FOX standing in front of the Oval Office. FOX was probably standing with a USSS plain clothes agent. FOX was not there when LEWINSKY departed. At some point LEWINSKY gave a box of LADY GODIVA chocolates to FOX.

An unidentified USSS plain clothes agent, who usually worked on Sunday afternoons, was present on two different occasions when LEWINSKY was with the President. LEWINSKY met the President by the elevators once and was escorted to the Oval Office. On another occasion the plain clothes agent was present when the President was joking about LEWINSKY's footwear that she had worn because of the snow. The President said, "Chelsea has some like that." This plain clothes agent, whose name LEWINSKY did not know, was a tall, hefty, attractive, white male with light hair. One of these occasions was either January 21, 1996 or February 4, 1996.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY, On 07/30/98, Page 3

A USSS officer named SANDY observed LEWINSKY with the President on December 31, 1995, when they were discussing cigars. SANDY was standing to the left of LEWINSKY, facing the door in the hallway. This was a visit with the President lasting about 20 or 25 minutes. LEWINSKY may have sent a birthday card to SANDY on a later date. SANDY was not further identified.

LEWINSKY was never refused entrance into the President's movie theater by a USSS officer. BAYANI NELVIS had once asked LEWINSKY if she had ever watched a movie with the President, and LEWINSKY responded that she had not, and as a matter of fact had never been in the theater.

On February 19, 1996, LEWINSKY went to the Oval Office without actually being invited; however, this was after talking to the President on the telephone. At this time there was a very tall, thin, plain clothes agent, with a mustache and an olive complexion, on duty. This plain clothes agent let LEWINSKY into the Oval Office between 12:00 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. This was the only time that LEWINSKY ever went to the Oval Office without the President expecting her.

The only time that LEWINSKY ever waited in the ROOSEVELT room was on July 24, 1997, and that was because BETTY CURRIE had her wait there. There were two ladies rooms in the West Wing, one being near LEON PANETTA's office and one past the Oval Office. LEWINSKY used the one near the Oval Office during the furlough. Subsequently, an E-mail came out from ANNE CATALINI that the employees of Legislative Affairs could not go by the Oval Office. There were three ways to go to the other remote offices of Legislative Affairs; one was down the stairs; one was through the West Wing lobby; and the third was past the Oval Office. EVELYN LIEBERMAN advised LEWINSKY to go through the lobby and not by the Oval Office.

Although LEWINSKY does recall a USSS plain clothes agent named GARY, Last Name Unknown (LNU), she does not recall that he ever asked LEWINSKY to leave the pantry or any other location. GARY may have said something like, "What are you up to?," but he never asked her to leave.

LEWINSKY knew a USSS plain clothes supervisor named BRYANT, who was friendly toward her, but LEWINSKY never discussed her relationship with the President with BRYANT. BRYANT could have escorted LEWINSKY to parties, but she has no memory of this.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY . On 07/30/98 . Page 4

LEWINSKY saw a USSS plain clothes agent named LOU MERLETTI several times, but had more of an acquaintance than a friendship with him. MERLETTI gave LEWINSKY his business card. LEWINSKY teased MERLETTI about being in so many photos with the President and sometimes joked with him in the hallways. LEWINSKY saw MERLETTI at the "Nutcracker" in December, 1996. MERLETTI was very friendly with LEWINSKY and she sent him a letter once. MERLETTI never saw LEWINSKY with the President to her knowledge. LEWINSKY also sent a gift to MERLETTI after she left the White House.

LEWINSKY has only a vague recollection of USSS plain clothes agent LARRY COCKELL, possibly having seen him on December 28, 1997.

On December 6, 1997, LEWINSKY went to the southwest gate and paged BETTY CURRIE to get in. While waiting, MARSHA SCOTT pulled up in her car, causing LEWINSKY to go to the northwest gate, which was under construction. When LEWINSKY arrived there, she called CURRIE, but there was no answer on CURRIE's phone. Two uniformed USSS officers, names unknown, were on duty. LEWINSKY had Christmas gifts for CURRIE and the President. Since CURRIE's telephone was not answered, LEWINSKY asked the guards to find out where CURRIE was and whether the President was in his office. One of the guards told LEWINSKY that CURRIE was giving a tour to ELEANOR MONDALE and confirmed that the President was in the Oval Office.

While at the northwest gate, LEWINSKY mistook LANNIE DAVIS for JOHN PODESTA, and after this misidentification was clarified, DAVIS was advised that LEWINSKY was waiting for BETTY CURRIE. CURRIE had told LEWINSKY earlier in the day that the President would be meeting with his lawyers on December 6th and that the President probably would not be able to meet with LEWINSKY. After finding out about MONDALE, LEWINSKY did not feel that CURRIE was truthful with her that day. LEWINSKY left the gate crying and very angry.

LEWINSKY called CURRIE from the CORCORAN GALLERY and confronted her about MONDALE visiting. CURRIE became angry also and apparently shouted at the guards for divulging that MONDALE was visiting the President. LEWINSKY assumed this, because CURRIE told LEWINSKY that LEWINSKY had gotten the guards in trouble. Later, when LEWINSKY talked to the President about this, the President asked LEWINSKY, "Do you think I'm stupid enough to go running with someone I'm messing around with?" The President also said that it was none of LEWINSKY's business what MONDALE was doing there; and that LEWINSKY should not be angry with CURRIE. LEWINSKY does not recall a discussion with the President about the guards at the northwest gate.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY, On 07/30/98, Page 5

Later in the day, LEWINSKY bought an airline ticket and traveled to New York.

AIC WIRTH departed at this time and Deputy Independent Counsel (DIC) WISENBERG arrived.

LEWINSKY said that she had seen SARAH FARNSWORTH at the Watergate Apartments recently, but that she did not speak to FARNSWORTH, as they did not like each other.

LEWINSKY stated that she did not wish to discuss the description of anyone's genitalia, but that she disagrees with the description given by PAULA JONES.

LEWINSKY had her first sexual contact with the President on November 15, 1995. After earlier seeing the President at JENNIFER PALMIERI's party, LEWINSKY was walking to the ladies room near the Oval Office about 8:00 p.m. Upon passing the office of GEORGE STEPHANOPOLOUS, LEWINSKY saw a USSS plain clothes agent outside the door and the President inside the office. The President motioned her into STEPHANOPOLOUS's office. There had been flirtation and eye contact between the President and LEWINSKY on other occasions. LEWINSKY wore G-string panties to the earlier party and pulled her jacket up so that the President could see them at the party. No one else observed this.

LEWINSKY, after entering STEPHANOPOLOUS's office, told the President that she had a crush on him. The President asked if LEWINSKY would like to see his back office and she responded affirmatively. Upon arriving there, the President and LEWINSKY began hugging and the President asked if he could kiss LEWINSKY. With her consent the President kissed her with open mouth in a very romantic way. LEWINSKY gave the President a piece of paper with her name and telephone number on it. The President asked if LEWINSKY wanted to meet him back in his office in about ten minutes and LEWINSKY agreed. LEWINSKY returned to PANETTA's outer office, where she had been working. MARTHA FOLEY may have been working and FOLEY may have given LEWINSKY a ride home that night.

LEWINSKY recalled that she was wearing navy blue pants

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY, On 07/30/98, Page 6

and a dark navy jacket that night. Sometime after 8:00 p.m., and before 10:00 p.m., LEWINSKY returned to the Oval Office and the President took her to the hallway by the back study behind the Oval Office. The lights were off. The President began kissing LEWINSKY and she unbuttoned her jacket. The President pulled her bra up (he only unhooked her bra once in subsequent sexual contacts) and put his hand down into her pants. The President received a telephone call from a Congressman or Senator. While talking on the telephone, the President kept his hand in LEWINSKY's pants to stimulate her, thereby causing her to have an orgasm or two. LEWINSKY then performed oral sex on the President, but he told LEWINSKY to stop before he reached completion. The President said that it was too soon for him to do that, inasmuch as he did not know or trust LEWINSKY well enough. The President tugged on her pink intern pass and said that "this" was going to be a problem.

The President did not know that LEWINSKY had already accepted a paying position that would entitle her to an employee pass. LEWINSKY told the President that she had had an affair with a married man before and that she knew the rules. By this statement LEWINSKY was trying to make the President feel more comfortable. She was sending a signal that she could keep quiet and lie if necessary. LEWINSKY was on "cloud nine." No further plans were made at that time and the President went upstairs to have dinner with Mrs. CLINTON. LEWINSKY speculated that the President's regular girlfriend had been furloughed.

On this or some other occasion the President said that he did not want to get addicted to having sex with LEWINSKY or he would want her all of the time. LEWINSKY and the President had incredible chemistry and were sexually compatible.

On Friday November 17, 1995 pizza was ordered. LEWINSKY picked up the pizza and delivered it to PANETTA's office. LEWINSKY went to CURRIE'S office to announce that the pizza had arrived. GENE SPERLING, GEORGE STEPHANOPOLOUS, and perhaps others were there. LEWINSKY returned to her office. A short time later, the President, CURRIE, and HERNREICH came to PANETTA's outer office. BARRY TOIV bumped into LEWINSKY and got pizza on her outfit. LEWINSKY went to the restroom to clean it off.

The President was standing outside of CURRIE's office when LEWINSKY came out of the restroom. The President invited LEWINSKY over to the Oval Office and they went to the rear study. The door to the Oval Office was left ajar. LEWINSKY asked the

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY, On 07/30/98, Page 7

President if he remembered her name. LEWINSKY advised the President that she had gotten a permanent job in Legislative Affairs. This would allow her to get a blue pass. The President was pleased. The President and LEWINSKY were talking about Jewish things near the bathroom when the President said, "Shut up and kiss me." LEWINSKY said that she had better get back to work before people began to wonder where she was. The President asked LEWINSKY to bring him some pizza. LEWINSKY returned to PANETTA's office.

LEWINSKY returned to BETTY CURRIE's office after a little while and BETTY announced, "Girl here with the pizza." BETTY sent LEWINSKY into the Oval Office. The President took the pizza and the two of them went to the bathroom area off the Oval Office.

The President was wearing a light blue shirt and a red tie. The President loosened his tie. They began kissing and the President attempted to unbutton LEWINSKY's jacket. He could not, so she did it. The President kissed LEWINSKY's breasts. When LEWINSKY unbuttoned the President's blue shirt, the President sucked in his stomach, and LEWINSKY kissed his chest. LEWINSKY assured the President that she thought his physical shape was cute.

At some point, BETTY CURRIE came near the Oval Office door and said, "Sir, phone call." The President took the call in the bathroom from a Congressman, who the President called by some "funny," unrecalled nickname. While the President was on the telephone, LEWINSKY performed oral sex on him. The President did not ask LEWINSKY to quit during the phone call, but did not ejaculate. The President never told LEWINSKY that there was no sex between them if he did not ejaculate, but she believed that not reaching completion somehow made the President feel less guilty.

The President said, "I'm usually around on weekends when no one else is around, and you can come and see me." The President complimented LEWINSKY's smile, prettiness, and energy. The President did not tell LEWINSKY how to get access to the Oval Office.

LEWINSKY returned to her office, and a short time later the President returned with his pizza and ate it in front of everyone. The President's tie was back up and he was wearing a distinct cologne.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY . On 07/30/98 . Page 8

On December 5, 1995, which was the day of the congressional Christmas Ball, the President signed the photograph of himself wearing the tie that LEWINSKY had given to him. He asked LEWINSKY if she wanted a diet Coke. LEWINSKY usually carried one out of the office for cover.

On December 31, 1995, at about noon, LEWINSKY was in the dining room talking to BAYANI NELVIS, a White House steward, about LEWINSKY recently having smoked her first cigar. NELVIS offered to get LEWINSKY a Presidential cigar and they headed to the President's back study. The President met NELVIS and LEWINSKY in the back hallway and said that he needed to get something to LEON PANETTA. The President gave the item to NELVIS to take to PANETTA. The President said that he had been looking for LEWINSKY, to which LEWINSKY replied that she had given him her number. LEWINSKY thought it was obvious that the President had forgotten her name because he saw LEWINSKY one time in the hallway and said, "Hey kiddo." The President asked why LEWINSKY was there in the back office and LEWINSKY replied that NELVIS was going to get her a Presidential cigar. The President said that he would give LEWINSKY a cigar and they went back into the study. They hugged and kissed. LEWINSKY rubbed his back. The President lifted her top and kissed her chest. LEWINSKY performed oral sex on the President, but he stopped her before completion. LEWINSKY went to leave. The President apparently thought that LEWINSKY had already left and went into the bathroom, where LEWINSKY could hear water running. LEWINSKY was putting her lipstick back on and getting herself together when she observed the President in the bathroom, [REDACTED].

The President was leaving for the Renaissance weekend in a helicopter soon thereafter.

LEWINSKY believes that KATHLEEN WILLEY is not telling the truth, because the President would not have let her leave without getting herself together.

On January 7, 1996, the President called LEWINSKY for the first time at her apartment. It was the first day of a blizzard. LEWINSKY was surprised when she answered the phone and realized that she was speaking to the President. The President asked LEWINSKY if she was going to the office. LEWINSKY asked the President if he wanted some company and the President replied that he did. The President said he was going to the office in about 45 minutes and LEWINSKY said she would be there in about an hour. LEWINSKY went to her office and the President called her there. LEWINSKY went to the Oval Office and they sat on the sofa and talked. After about ten minutes they went to the bathroom area in the back office. The President had wanted to perform oral sex on LEWINSKY, but she did not want him to because she was having her menstrual period. The President and LEWINSKY had foreplay, but the President stayed above her waist. LEWINSKY performed oral sex on the President, but he did not reach completion. The President and LEWINSKY usually kept their clothing on so that they could recover quickly if interrupted. They went to the Oval Office, where the President sat at his desk and LEWINSKY sat on the sofa. They both knew what the coverup would be to conceal their relationship. They talked and joked around for about 15 minutes before LEWINSKY left. LEWINSKY told the President that he could call her; could listen while she did the talking; and could engage in phone sex. The President said "I'll be around on weekends."

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY, On 07/30/98, Page 9

On January 16, 1996, at about 12:30 a.m., the President called LEWINSKY, after having been in Atlanta for MARTIN LUTHER KING day. The President said, "You said that I could call and listen." They had phone sex, with LEWINSKY doing all of the talking. LEWINSKY spoke all of the words. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The President ended the call by saying that maybe he would call LEWINSKY tomorrow. The President did not call, which made LEWINSKY feel insecure. LEWINSKY was worried that the President did not like the way she performed phone sex. In thinking about their relationship, LEWINSKY observed that initially she was volunteering all of the information about their personal lives and that the President did not provide any details unless LEWINSKY asked. The President sometimes told personal things, but usually spoke about general things. LEWINSKY wanted to know whether they were going to fall in love or whether it would just be a sexual relationship.

On Sunday, January 21, 1996, which was the first day that a soldier had been killed in Bosnia, LEWINSKY saw the President in the hallway near the elevator. The President was accompanied by a USSS plain clothes agent. While talking in the Oval Office, the President said it was very sad to have someone die as a result of one of his Executive Orders. LEWINSKY was feeling like she had been taken for granted. LEWINSKY wound up in the rear hallway with the President. LEWINSKY was having a "bad hair day" and was wearing her beret. This was the first time that the President had seen her with the beret and told LEWINSKY that she was cute in her hat. LEWINSKY dropped her coat on the floor. The President was wearing olive pants and a green sweater

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of

MONICA S. LEWINSKY

. On 07/30/98

. Page 10

that did not match. As they were heading to the back hallway, LEWINSKY stopped the President and asked him if he was interested in anything more than sex. The President replied that he "cherished his time" with LEWINSKY and that she was a "gift" to him. LEWINSKY treated the President as a regular person and did not stand on ceremony when LEWINSKY was with him. The President said he liked that. They kissed and the President kissed her chest. LEWINSKY performed oral sex on the President in the hallway and possibly in the bathroom. The BLAIRs from Arkansas were in town visiting with the President. LEWINSKY went out to BETTY CURRIE's office with the President and he kissed her goodbye in NANCY HERNREICH's office. LEWINSKY started to leave through the other door, found it locked, and turned around to exit through the door of HERNREICH's office where they had entered. LEWINSKY passed the President, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The President grinned and kissed LEWINSKY goodbye again. LEWINSKY departed through BETTY CURRIE's office and the garden door. LEWINSKY purposely departed by a different door than the one that she had entered, so that the USSS staff would not know when LEWINSKY came and left. The BLAIRs were going out with the CLINTONS to see the VERMEER exhibit.

LEWINSKY spent the weekend ending January 28th in San Francisco. Upon LEWINSKY's return she saw on her caller identification feature that the President had called her office phone while she was in California. On Tuesday, January 30, 1996, the President called LEWINSKY on her office telephone. The display reflected "POTUS." The President said he had seen LEWINSKY getting yogurt and she looked really pretty. The President suggested that they get together after the party for PAT GRIFFIN. LEWINSKY responded that they should ignore each other at the party so that people would not get suspicious. The President asked if he could meet LEWINSKY later and LEWINSKY declined, because they had to be careful. EVELYN LIEBERMAN had already taken notice of LEWINSKY.

On Saturday, February 4, 1996, the President called LEWINSKY and they agreed that she would carry some papers and meet in the hallway. This occurred and they went to the back office. LEWINSKY was wearing a black dress with little flowers and combat boots. The President commented on the combat boots. The President unbuttoned LEWINSKY's dress and it hung down. The President pulled up LEWINSKY's bra. The President lifted LEWINSKY's dress up. At that point, LEWINSKY stated that she could not continue with the details while male staff members were present. After a short consultation with her attorney, LEWINSKY continued that she had performed oral sex on the President, but that it was not reciprocal oral sex. The President commented on LEWINSKY's state of arousal. When they were finished in the hallway, after about 45 minutes, the President and LEWINSKY went to the Oval Office, where they talked for another 45 minutes. LEWINSKY characterized the talking as "pillow talk." Upon leaving, the President told LEWINSKY to complete her tasks in another part of the West Wing before returning to her office, so that LEWINSKY would not draw attention by going directly from the Oval Office to her office.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY . On 07/30/98 . Page 11

On February 7, 1996, a party was held for STEVE FRISCHETTI. That night the President called LEWINSKY at home. Mrs. CLINTON was out of town. The President signed the telecommunications bill while wearing one of LEWINSKY's ties that day.

On Thursday, February 8, 1996, the President called LEWINSKY and at some point during the conversation they engaged in phone sex. On this occasion both the President and LEWINSKY participated verbally in a portion of the phone sex. LEWINSKY said that most of the time she initiated phone sex, but sometimes the President did. During this call, or in a previous call, the President told LEWINSKY that she reminded him of a character, but LEWINSKY could not recall any further description, other than the character had something to do with London.

On Sunday, February 19, 1996, the President called LEWINSKY from his office. The President sounded weird and LEWINSKY did not know what to make of it. LEWINSKY went to the Oval Office uninvited and observed the tall, thin, Hispanic plain clothes agent that she had described earlier in the interview. LEWINSKY advised that this was the only time she went to the Oval Office uninvited. LEWINSKY had previously told the President about ANDY BLEILER in Portland. The President said, "I don't want to be like that schmuck in Oregon." The President would only hug LEWINSKY that day, and he explained that he did not feel right about their sexual relationship; that he felt guilty; that LEWINSKY could still come by and visit; but that they would only be friends and not fool around.

LEWINSKY advised that during this visit with the President, he received a telephone call from a person whose last name began with an "F". This person and his brother had a sugar growing business in Florida. The President took some notes, hung up, and told LEWINSKY that he had to cut their meeting short so that he could talk to this gentleman. The President said that he was going to sign some legislation that was going to have a detrimental effect on the sugar business, and when he does something that is going to "screw" someone, he likes to tell them first.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY . On 07/30/98 . Page 12

On a day at the end of February or early March 1996, the President left a message on LEWINSKY's caller identification feature which indicated that "POTUS" had called. This predicated a discussion about the discovery of their relationship. It was decided that a different telephone would be used by the President when calling LEWINSKY's office, so that the readout would not give them away. This day can be established as the day that a bombing occurred and lives were lost in Israel. The President went to the Israeli Embassy to express his regrets. LEWINSKY observed the President and EVELYN LIEBERMAN in the hallway. The President called LEWINSKY at home at about 10:00 p.m. from upstairs in the residence. The President and LEWINSKY talked for about 20 minutes. LEWINSKY offered to visit, but the President declined, advising that CHELSEA CLINTON was sick.

On Friday, March 29, 1996, the President called LEWINSKY in her office. LEWINSKY had cut her hand and bruised herself. The President observed the wounds when LEWINSKY was passing the Map Room in the hallway that evening. The President was wearing the first tie LEWINSKY had given him. The President spoke to LEWINSKY and said that he was sorry that she had hurt her hand. This occurred in the presence of HAROLD ICKES and BRUCE LINDSEY. During the telephone call, the President offered to invite LEWINSKY to a movie that night if LEWINSKY would hang around in the hall just before the movie started so they could pretend to accidentally run into each other. LEWINSKY declined because staff members such as HERNREICH and STEPHANOPOLOUS would be present in the movie and might question her presence. LEWINSKY did not want people to think that she was hanging around uninvited. JENNIE CRUZANO had previously passed BAYANI NELVIS in the hallway and asked NELVIS why NELVIS was talking to LEWINSKY. LEWINSKY had also heard that EVELYN LIEBERMAN was suspicious of her. LEWINSKY concluded the call by asking whether she could see the President on Sunday.

On Sunday, March 31, 1996, LEWINSKY brought some papers to the Oval Office and entered with a USSS plain clothes agent who poked his head in the back hallway. LEWINSKY and the agent heard the toilet flush and were a bit embarrassed. The President was ill. The President was wearing blue jeans and a T-shirt. After the plain clothes agent departed, the President and LEWINSKY fooled around. They touched and kissed in the hallway.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY, On 07/30/98, Page 13

They talked about cigars while the President was chewing on one and then the President looked at LEWINSKY sheepishly and she understood what the President was thinking. LEWINSKY allowed the President to insert the cigar into her vagina. The President placed the cigar into his mouth after withdrawing it from LEWINSKY and said, "It tastes good." The President did not smoke the cigar because smoking is forbidden in the White House. There was no oral sex on this visit. LEWINSKY had brought the President a blue HUGO BOSS tie, concealed among the papers that she carried into the Oval Office. LEWINSKY asked the President if he would wear the tie the following Wednesday for the Office of Legislative Affairs' photograph. The President did wear the tie, but the photograph was not taken due to the death of RON BROWN. This visit was in the late afternoon and lasted from 30 to 45 minutes. LEWINSKY exited via the Rose Garden.

On Easter Sunday, April 7, 1996, LEWINSKY visited the President to discuss her transfer to the Pentagon. This was a result of the President calling LEWINSKY between 5:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. During this call LEWINSKY cried and told the President that she had been fired. When LEWINSKY arrived uniformed USSS officer JOHN MUSKETT was there, but LEWINSKY did not recall a plain clothes agent. When LEWINSKY advised MUSKETT that she had some papers for the President, MUSKETT said that he would check with LIEBERMAN about the visit. LEWINSKY quickly said that the President had asked for the papers and that she would only be a minute. LIEBERMAN was not advised to LEWINSKY's knowledge. LEWINSKY went into the back hallway with the President and he said, "I'm sorry they're taking you away--I trust you." The President said, "After the election I'll have you back like this" and snapped his fingers.

LEWINSKY had started performing oral sex on the President when someone from the Oval Office advised the President that he had a telephone call. The President went out to the Oval Office and then took the telephone call in the back office. LEWINSKY put her bra back on at this point. The call was apparently from DICK MORRIS, although LEWINSKY did not know it then. The call concerned campaign strategy. The President wanted LEWINSKY to continue the oral sex while he was on the phone with MORRIS. LEWINSKY complied, but felt cheap doing this. HAROLD ICKES came to the door of the Oval Office and called, "Mr. President," at which time the President bolted out of the back study. LEWINSKY departed the back way and not through the Oval Office. The President called LEWINSKY later and asked why LEWINSKY had left. LEWINSKY replied that ICKES might have walked in. The President asked LEWINSKY to come back the next day to

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of

MONICA S. LEWINSKY

On 07/30/98

Page

14

see NANCY HERNREICH about getting a job in the White House.

LEWINSKY advised that the phone sex calls continued after she left her White House job. The President usually called from his residence, or from out of town, and almost always awakened LEWINSKY during the early morning hours. Generally, the President preferred that LEWINSKY do most of the talking during phone sex.

On May 16, 1996, the President called LEWINSKY, but did not want to participate in phone sex. The President felt very badly about Admiral BOORDA committing suicide.

On July 5, 1996, the President called for phone sex when LEWINSKY came back from Bosnia. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] while LEWINSKY was still talking about her trip and not talking in a sexually explicit manner. LEWINSKY asked, "Aren't you going to wait for me?"

On July 19, 1996, the President telephoned LEWINSKY at 6:30 a.m. and had phone sex. Near the end of the call the President said "good morning" in such a way that LEWINSKY was convinced that he had climaxed. The President then said something like, "What a way to start a day."

On September 5, 1996, the President called from out of town and LEWINSKY tried to convince him that they should have sex. The President said that he could not have intercourse with LEWINSKY and that there were consequences when you became older. This resulted in a fight on the telephone and the President asked if he should stop calling LEWINSKY. LEWINSKY responded that he should not.

On September 10, 1996, the President called from out of town and left a message on LEWINSKY's recorder, inasmuch as she was not home.

On October 21, 1996, the President called and they had phone sex.

On October 22, 1996, the President called and he and LEWINSKY had phone sex. The President seemed to take more control, as he talked more during the sexual portion of the call. The President liked it when LEWINSKY lead the sex talk from the start and began with such questions as, "Where are you?" and "What are you wearing?" Sometimes the President initiated the phone sex and sometimes LEWINSKY did.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY, On 07/30/98, Page 15

On December 2, 1996, the President called LEWINSKY about 10:30 p.m., but after a short time the President hung up to take another call. The President called back a few minutes later and they began having phone sex. The President fell asleep during the call. LEWINSKY had to awaken him. LEWINSKY thought that this was "sweet" that the President would call her when he was so tired.

On February 8, 1997, the President called LEWINSKY and they had phone sex. The President said he wanted LEWINSKY to come by and pick up her hatpin. However, it was snowing that day and the President remarked that he felt bad asking BETTY CURRIE to come in (to facilitate a LEWINSKY visit). LEWINSKY and the President had phone sex.

On February 28, 1997, BETTY CURRIE called LEWINSKY at work at approximately 4:00 p.m. to invite LEWINSKY to the President's radio address. LEWINSKY hurried home to change into a new dress. LEWINSKY attended and took a photograph with the President after the address. STEVE GOODIN, RAHM EMMANUEL, and an unrecalled person were in the Oval Office. CURRIE later related that GOODIN had told her privately that she could not let the President and LEWINSKY be alone. LEWINSKY was nervous about the other visitors seeing her at the address. After the address, LEWINSKY walked to the back office with CURRIE and the President and CURRIE excused herself by going to the dining room and saying, "I'll be right back." The President and LEWINSKY went to the study, where he kissed LEWINSKY, unbuttoned her dress, pulled off her bra, and kissed her on the chest. Someone came into the Oval Office, causing the President and LEWINSKY to go into the bathroom, where the President "undid" his pants [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] LEWINSKY then performed oral sex on the President, but he tried to stop her before completion. They had a discussion about the President not ejaculating. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] They continued the oral sex until the President ejaculated and then they hugged.

LEWINSKY returned to the dining room area and CURRIE, who had been talking to BAYANI NELVIS, walked her out. CURRIE was supposed to have acted as a chaperone after GOODIN counseled her. On this visit LEWINSKY was wearing the dress that she later noticed to be stained. LEWINSKY believes the dress may have been stained by the President's semen that day after he ejaculated, but she is not sure. The President gave LEWINSKY a hat pin and a book that day.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY . On 07/30/98 . Page 16

On Wednesday, March 12, 1997, the President called LEWINSKY at work and asked LEWINSKY to visit him the next day.

On March 13, 1997, the visit was canceled because the President's schedule was too hectic.

On March 14, 1997, the President called LEWINSKY about the HUGO BOSS tie that LEWINSKY had bought in Georgetown. The President stated that the tie had a big cut in it and that he asked if LEWINSKY could exchange it. LEWINSKY picked up the tie, and after looking at the damage, was of the opinion that it had been deliberately cut. KATHRYN DAVIS's sister, KELLY DAVIS, was in town that day. KELLY DAVIS knows nothing of the relationship between LEWINSKY and the President.

On March 29, 1997, the President's brother, ROGER CLINTON, was in town. A meeting was set up between the President and LEWINSKY. LEWINSKY was supposed to bring back the HUGO BOSS tie that day. LEWINSKY went to the White House and waited in the back study. The President hobbled into the room on crutches as a result of injuring his knee in Florida several weeks earlier. This was one of the few days that the President and LEWINSKY fooled around the entire time in the study. The President was uncomfortable and could not bend over. The President unbuttoned LEWINSKY's blouse, but she did not remove the blouse. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The President spent a lot of time concentrating on LEWINSKY. LEWINSKY had four to six orgasms that day. A ray of sunshine was shining directly on LEWINSKY's face while she performed oral sex to completion on the President. The President remarked about LEWINSKY's beauty. The President spent a lot of time talking with LEWINSKY that day.

The President said that he believed that an unnamed foreign Embassy was listening in on the President's official telephones so they would have to be careful in their phone conversations. The President came up with the ruse that if LEWINSKY was ever questioned to just say that they were friends, and they were just doing it to give people a run for their money. After their private meeting the President and LEWINSKY went into

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY, On 07/30/98, Page 17

BETTY CURRIE's office, where they sang "Try A Little Tenderness." CURRIE then walked LEWINSKY to the door. This was the last real sexual contact that LEWINSKY had with the President, other than kissing, hugging, and brief fondling.

On July 4, 1997, the President kissed LEWINSKY on the neck.

On August 16, 1997, LEWINSKY was with the President near the bathroom in the back office and he gave LEWINSKY an open mouth kiss. It was the President's birthday.

On October 10, 1997 the President called in the early morning hours, but got into a big fight with LEWINSKY. There was no phone sex. This was the longest telephone call from the President.

On November 12, 1997, the President was visited by some friend from Arkansas who had a terminal illness. That night, or early the next morning, the President called LEWINSKY and they had phone sex.

On December 28, 1997, LEWINSKY visited the President in the back office. While standing near the doorway to the study, the President gave LEWINSKY an open mouth Christmas kiss. During the kiss the President was looking out the window to make sure they were not being observed.

LEWINSKY and the President touched tongues while kissing on the day of ZEDILLO's visit. As an example of flirtation between LEWINSKY and the President, during the celebration of the President's 49th birthday, the President's elbow had grazed the breast of LEWINSKY. On the occasion of the President's 50th birthday, LEWINSKY was wearing a strapless dress and was in front of a rope line where the President was greeting guests. As the President reached over LEWINSKY to make contact with a well wisher, LEWINSKY reached back and touched the President's crotch. No one else was in a position to observe this.

LEWINSKY sent a few raunchy greeting cards and possibly a few raunchy notes/letters to the President. Although the President liked them, he cautioned her to be careful putting things in writing. LEWINSKY assumes that the President tore the cards and letters up and flushed them down the toilet.

Sometimes when the President and LEWINSKY were fooling around, LEWINSKY would wipe off her lipstick before kissing the President. LEWINSKY did not dress inappropriately while working at the White House, but did wear some low-cut clothing while working at the Pentagon.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY, On 07/30/98, Page 18

LEWINSKY dressed well when seeing the President, but did not wear the same outfit every time. LEWINSKY wore her "lucky" green suit twice and the flower dress twice. The President wore boxer shorts on one occasion, blue briefs on another, and grey shorts when the President hurt his leg. During LEWINSKY's later visits in the back study, the President usually sat in his rocking chair and LEWINSKY sat on the floor below the rocking chair and in between his legs. This arrangement was very intimate and allowed them to touch each other.

LEWINSKY said that she did not make up the sexual activities detailed above, nor did she embellish them. Most of these incidents can be verified through her "personal diary," LINDA TRIPP. LEWINSKY confided in TRIPP on almost a daily basis for a long time, but she never suggested that TRIPP keep records or charts of her activities with the President. In February, 1997, TRIPP asked LEWINSKY to go back over the activities so that TRIPP could figure out a pattern to the sexual encounters. TRIPP was a strategist, and wanted to know if the President only called when he was upset.

SCOTT told LEWINSKY that SCOTT would detail LEWINSKY back over to the White House; however, this never happened.

In July, August, or September 1997, LEWINSKY invited BETTY CURRIE to have a drink with her at the HAY ADAMS bar to discuss LEWINSKY's job situation. However, CURRIE and LEWINSKY had coffee, not alcoholic drinks. LEWINSKY had set up the meeting to discuss her job situation. During the conversation, which lasted less than an hour, LEWINSKY reminded CURRIE that REBECCA CAMERON was still dragging her feet in giving LEWINSKY the photograph taken at the President's radio address; that MARSHA SCOTT really had not taken any action to get LEWINSKY back to the White House; and that the President did not seem to be helping either. LEWINSKY's approach was, "Hey, I've been a good girl, I went to the Pentagon, and why won't the President bring me back?" LEWINSKY opined that there was a "turf war" between some of the women at the White House. CURRIE explained that the President had trouble getting people jobs, because that was done at a lower level and that she would talk to MARSHA SCOTT. CURRIE drove her car to the hotel on this occasion.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY . On 07/30/98 . Page 19

In discussing BETTY CURRIE, LEWINSKY remarked that CURRIE sometimes acted naive about what was going on, even though CURRIE had observed LEWINSKY show a lot of emotion about the President. LEWINSKY was very angry with CURRIE on December 6, 1997, when LEWINSKY called her from a pay phone. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] CURRIE had previously told LEWINSKY that the President would be busy all day with his lawyers. LEWINSKY periodically talked to CURRIE about their mutual friend, WALTER KAYE, who knew that the President was fond of LEWINSKY. CURRIE never complained about coming in on weekends to facilitate LEWINSKY's visits to the President. LEWINSKY cultivated CURRIE as a friend, because CURRIE was in a good position to help LEWINSKY. LEWINSKY did not tell CURRIE of her exact relationship with the President, and she and the President attempted to be discreet in front of CURRIE.

On March 29, 1997, CURRIE called from her home to clear LEWINSKY at the White House gate and called from the hospital on October 11, 1997 to do the same. Sometimes, CURRIE conducted private tours on weekends for the President. LEWINSKY knew of no one else at her level that had the degree of access to the President that LEWINSKY did. On "dump day," May 24, 1997, LEWINSKY called CURRIE and advised that LEWINSKY was waiting to see the President. CURRIE said that she had to check Mrs. CLINTON's schedule and said Mrs. CLINTON was going to use the pool that day. This was the only time that LEWINSKY actually knew that CURRIE had factored in the whereabouts of Mrs. CLINTON with LEWINSKY's visits to the President. Mrs. CLINTON never saw LEWINSKY in the Oval Office.

Fourteen photographs of gifts and mementos were displayed to LEWINSKY, who made the following remarks:

1. Ticket to August Ball.
2. Book entitled, "Our Patriotic President," given to the President by LEWINSKY on December 6, 1997. Purchased at New York flea market for $40.00.
3. Antique book entitled "Presidents of the United States of America;" given to the President by dropping off at BETTY CURRIE's home on a weekend in early January 1998, which was the day the President and the First Lady were photographed dancing on the beach in Florida, purchased for $40.00 at Georgetown bookstore off M Street next to the Christian Scientist book store sometime after December 28, 1997. LEWINSKY included a mushy note in the book. The President acknowledged receipt of the book and note and remarked that LEWINSKY should not have written the note because it was not good to have those things in writing. LEWINSKY's note made reference to the movie "Titanic," which she had seen that weekend.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY, On 07/30/98, Page 20

4. Silver cigar holder purchased at flea market in New York in October/November 1997, for $180.00 in cash. Handed to President in his rocking chair on December 6, 1997, and he said, "It is beautiful." Seen by LINDA TRIPP at work and brother MICHAEL in apartment. LEWINSKY tried to buy DAVIDOFF cigars for holder but unsuccessful. LEWINSKY observed on President's desk in Oval Office on December 28, 1997.

5. STARBUCKS Santa Monica coffee cup purchased at the Los Angeles International Airport and given to President on December 6, 1997; President remarked, "I like big mugs" and LEWINSKY responded, "No, you like big jugs."

6. Gold and blue tie designed by Feraud and purchased in London for 25 pounds in early December, 1997. Presented to President on December 6, 1997.

7. A pin depicting the New York skyline given to LEWINSKY by the President on December 28, 1997.

8. Flower pin for birthday gift handed to LEWINSKY by BETTY CURRIE on behalf of the President in July 1997; may have been CURRIE's personal pin commandeered as last minute gift.

9. Hat pin purchased by the President in Albuquerque on February 28, 1997; LEWINSKY loved it and wore it with her straw hat; told NEYSA about the gift.

10. Green dress from the BLACK DOG shop given to LEWINSKY by the President; LEWINSKY considered it an important personal gift.

11. White T-shirt from BLACK DOG presented by President.

12. Green T-shirt from BLACK DOG presented by President.

29D OIC LR 35063

Continuation of OIC-302 of MONICA S. LEWINSKY, On 07/30/98, Page 21

13. Ball cap from BLACK DOG presented by President.
14. State Of The Union invitation signed by President and presented to LEWINSKY in 1996.
15. State Of The Union invitation in envelope (duplicate).

Photographs displayed are further described by the following Bates Stamp number:

1. MSL-DC-00000474
2. V002-DC-00000003
3. V002-DC-00000471
4. V000-DC-00000474
5. V002-DC-00000473
6. V002-DC-00000472
7. 824-DC-00000018
8. 824-DC-00000019
9. 824-DC-00000019
10. 824-DC-00000006
11. 824-DC-00000008
12. 824-DC-00000007
13. 824-DC-00000009
14. 824-DC-00000003
15. 824-DC-00000004

LEWINSKY added that she noticed that BAYANI NELVIS wore the first tie that she had given to the President to one of his grand jury appearances.

The interview was terminated at 6:15 p.m.

