Dear

Thank you for your interest in the secretarial/administrative positions with the National Security Council staff.

Your application and resume were well received, and you are obviously highly qualified. We received several applications and the competition for the positions has been competitive. I am sorry, but I cannot offer you a position at this time. I will keep your resume/application on file for other openings as they occur.

I enjoyed meeting with you and wish you success in your career.

Sincerely,

Marsha L. Dimel
